

CINEMA II

One of these great movies runs all day long. You pay once that day, then you and your family can see it as many times as you like that day at no additional charge!

Bobby Deerfield. Starring Al Pacino and Marthe Keller in a tragic love story you won't forget! Filmed in some of Europe's most beautiful locations, Bobby Deerfield is a lavish, romantic movie of a champion Grand Prix driver whose fame and success leave him isolated and lonely. In trying to discover the cause of a fellow driver's mysterious accident, Pacino meets a beautiful young woman (Keller) who changes his life. Her terminal illness and his death-defying profession make this an unusual and unforgettable romance. Based on the novel Heaven Has No Favorites by Erich Maria Remarque. Rated PG due to adult subject matter and partial nudity. July 1, 3, 6, 10, 16, 19, 21, 25, 29. $2.50

New York, New York. Swing with superstars Liza Minnelli and Robert De Niro in this romantic musical drama! De Niro learned how to play the saxophone for his role as the hot-tempered, ambitious musician who makes beautiful music with Minnelli in the euphoria of the big-band, post-war years. (See how much Liza resembles Mom Judy Garland by touching your Classics & Encores channel for A Star Is Born — see page 7.) Martin Scorsese (director of Taxi Driver and The Last Waltz) focuses his award-winning directing abilities on the spectacular world of '40s music and movies. Enjoy the great music of Glenn Miller, Tommy and Jimmy Dorsey, and Benny Goodman throughout this lavish film! Rated PG due to adult language and situations. July 2, 8, 11, 14, 20, 26, 28, 31. $2.50

Rollercoaster. Join George Segal for the ride of your life! Segal plays an average guy (Harry Calder) who accidentally becomes involved in a deadly game of terrorism that takes him from one amusement park to another. The killer (Timothy Bottoms) is a psychopath who proves he's not afraid to send dozens of innocent rollercoaster riders to their deaths. Richard Widmark, Henry Fonda and Susan Strasberg co-star in this suspense thriller. Rated PG, mostly for the real terror caused by a madman turned loose in an amusement park. July 4, 7, 9, 12, 15, 17, 23, 27. $2.50

Pumping Iron. Meet "Mr. Universe," Arnold Schwarzenegger — the man with the perfect body! This brilliantly filmed documentary takes you inside the bizarre, highly competitive world of bodybuilding, the sport in which the human body is treated as a living sculpture. You will be amazed at the behind-the-scenes shots of the most prominent bodybuilders as they ready themselves for the fierce competition of the "Mr. Universe" and "Mr. Olympia" contests. How do they do it? Why do they do it? What are their lives like? Find out in this PG rated film. July 5, 13, 18, 22, 24, 30. $2.50
